“Good morning. I am here to file an Emergency Objection, Motion to Strike the Magistrate’s Report and Recommendation, and Demand for Article III Review in case 2:25-cv-02145-TLB.”

(Hand the packet forward.)

“This is a complete, single-unit filing.
Please file it in full, and please file-stamp my copy as proof of submission.”

(When they begin scanning or flipping through pages)

“Under FRCP 5(d)(4), all papers must be accepted for filing, and nothing may be refused.
Everything in this packet is required to be docketed as one complete submission.”

(If they hesitate or comment on the size or content)

“This filing also documents prior record irregularities, so I need the full packet stamped and certified without omission.”

(If they ask whether all exhibits must be scanned)

“Yes. The entire packet must be docketed.
The Article III Judge will be conducting de novo review, and the complete record is required.”

(Ask for certified copies)

“I will need a certified, stamped copy of the first page and the clerk’s receipt showing the total number of pages filed today.”

(If they attempt to set aside pages, remove exhibits, or separate items)

“Everything must be filed as one complete submission.
Please do not separate or exclude any portion.
If there is an issue, please note your objection on the record and provide a signed statement of non-acceptance.”

They will not want to sign anything.
They will comply.

(Once stamped)
“Thank you. Please ensure this is forwarded to Judge Brooks’ chambers today.

This filing contains emergency material requiring immediate Article III review.”

Then leave.
